DISTRICT COURT.

William Vogel, the confederate of Edward Brown, was tried today.

The evidence in the case was similar to that given yesterday in the case against Brown.

The witnesses called by the state were A. Katz, Ferdinand Hyman, Fred Lewison, James M. Bales, S. Daniels and Officers Mc Namara and Stewart, all of whom gave testimony regarding the identification of goods or men.

For the defense was called Martin Spivey, night clerk at the Tremont; Frank Hathaway, a hack driver; J. S. Callin, clerk at the Douglas avenue, and the defendant himself. The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

POLICE COURT.

Two drunks, D. J. Bliss and William Owens, appeared before his honor yesterday morning. They were fined $5 each. Bliss paid and was dismissed; but Owens was committed.

Faithful Jap Mariatt made a monthly report and handed over to the city $1,294.50, the amount of his collections from Monday morning to Friday evening. This is perhaps the largest amount turned into the treasury at one time from the public court.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

Of the Two Johns Comedy Company, that will appear at the opera house tonight the Troy Press says:

Seldom have we witnessed a more enjoyable entertainment than that given at the Grosvenor opera house last evening by the John C. Stewart comedy company. The "Two Johns" was the attraction and it is without doubt one of the most amusing plays ever written. Conceivably, if you can two men of over 200 pounds avoirdupois each, with a strong resemblance to the other in the face, form and dress. One of the Johns is always in mischief, but when retaliation comes the other John is invariably the victim. The play is replete with very ludicrous situations, which provoke great mirth. "The Two Johns" will be repeated this evening. Go see it and laugh.

The Beacons' announcement that the new opera house site had been settled was premature. There was no authority for the announcement. C. C. Daisey who has been endeavoring to secure the location for South Topeka is discouraged and from the result of the Beacons' announcement. Over a thousand dollars remained to be secured in order that the building might go on the corner of Topeka avenue and Williams street. The matter now looks very doubtful. Two other locations are ready to make an effort to secure the fifty thousand dollar edifice, which will be altogether the finest opera house in the state of Kansas.

It is said that Garden City, the Little Giant, in Finney county, is a fac simile of Wichita in 1872 and 1873.

The excursion leaving Wichita next Tuesday evening will give the people an opportunity to see Western Kansas in all her primitive glory. Governor Martin will open the Southwestern Kansas exposition at Garden City, Tuesday, October 12th. During the first three days of the exposition a soldier's reunion will be held. Liberal premiums are offered for the speed ring, insuring the people plenty of amusement. A special car will leave Wichita on October 12th at 5:30 p. m. Tickets for sale at S. G. Winch's postoffice bookstore. The car and excursion will be under the management of J. C. Richey. Price of tickets, $7.50.

The literary society of the Southwestern Business college, was largely attended on last Wednesday evening. Each one of the performers carried out their part of the program, thus doing justice to themselves, as well as receiving the applause of others. The debate which came last was on the order of exercises, was shared in by quite a number of able debaters; the question was thoroughly discussed pro and con until the president said it was enough and called for the decision of the question. A lengthy and very interesting program has been arranged for the next evening of the society, which convenes on Wednesday eve.

Some correspondent or friend really gifted with a napkin of the divine allusion, signing himself or herself "K." wrote a really pretty thing for last Sunday's EAGLE, which we headed "The Belated Eagle." We ignored our rule and published without knowing the author's name. Now we are in receipt of another poetical effusion on that highly imaginary subject "Trichina." If our author will send name—not for publication—we will publish his pleasantness with pleasure.

Mr. Bauseman, an old and prominent citizen of Leavenworth, who has been spending several days in Wichita, made us a call yesterday to talk over Wichita and her future as a commercial center. Mr. B. being an observant and experienced business man needed no convincing. To see Wichita is but to be convinced.

The rain of yesterday morning was most timely for the wheat which will now promptly clothe the fields wherein sown with green. In some of the earlier sowed fields there is already a promising stand, but the rain of yesterday was just sufficient to thoroughly wet the ground. A few warm days will germinate every seed.

Nathaniel Greenfield, esp. of Wells county, Ind., en route home from a visit to his daughter in Nebraska, pays Wichita a passing visit, and is a guest of his former friends and neighbors, erstwhile residents of Indiana. In speaking of Wichita he simply adds to the historic refrain of the amazed queen of Sheba. Selah.

Mr. W. E. Shafer, of Banker Hill, Illinois, a friend of Mr. E. Hollister, returned yesterday after some days' visit to this place. He was here some years ago, but says he did not expect to see Wichita as large as it is, and hoping to make amends for his former mistake, invested considerably in real estate.

Miss Lillian Brandon's class will give their last recital at the residence of Mr. N. A. English, 433 South Topeka avenue, Monday evening, October 11th. The occasion will be a very interesting one and fortunate will be the few who shall receive invitations to be present.

The amount paid by Mr. Augustus Knight of St. Louis, for a portion of Highland park was thirty-two thousand dollars and not twenty-three as our sale list gave it. The figures were transposed. Such mistakes are annoying.

Remember the lecture by Prof. Fred Bell at the Presbyterian church Monday evening next, and don't forget that you can't afford to miss hearing him sing. Tickets for sale at Winch's book store.
